

Dr Henrietta Hughes

Dr Henrietta Hughes is the NHS National Guardian for speaking up freely and safely. Her role is to support whistleblowing and work with Trusts to be more transparent and to respond earlier to concerns raised by staff. We were able to discuss her initial findings and the experience of whistleblowers in my constituency.