

Georgia Shortman

Congratulations to Georgia Shortman, from the South Hams on being selected to represent Oxford Brookes University in Parliament celebrating excellence in undergraduate research. At Posters in Parliament, Georgia presented her dissertation on women in the wine industry considering the opportunities and obstacles, as well as different cultural attitudes to women in the industry.