

NHS: Reorganisation

Written Answer

Sarah Wollaston MP for Totnes

To ask the Secretary of State for Health, which sustainability and transformation plans contain no mechanism for engaging schools and colleges as active stakeholders.

David Mowat Under Secretary of State at the Department of Health

This information is not held centrally. Local areas are responsible for engaging with the staff, patients and the public, as well as organisations which may include schools and colleges, to further develop their plans.