

Care Quality Commissioner

It was lovely to meet today with the Care Quality Commissioner's Chief Inspector of hospitals, Prof Ted Baker to discuss protecting patient safety and the importance of tackling blame culture. It was also an opportunity to raise key local issue of rural ambulance services and response times