

Northern Ireland (Executive Formation and Exercise of Functions) Bill

Sarah Wollaston Chair, Health and Social Care Committee, Chair, Liaison Committee (Commons)

My hon. Friend appears to be arguing for the continuation of a human rights border down the Irish sea.

Fiona Bruce Conservative, Congleton

What I am arguingâ€”reluctantly, I need to repeat many of the points I made in the Chamber yesterdayâ€”is that this key issue does merit reconsideration, but reconsideration in the right legislative chamber, namely the Northern Ireland Assembly. Elected officials there should be making such decisions while accountable to the people they represent.
