

European Union (Withdrawal) Act

Sarah Wollaston Chair, Health and Social Care Committee, Chair, Liaison Committee (Commons)

I welcome the Prime Minister's commitment to engage further with the Select Committees. When she came to the Liaison Committee last week, she will have heard one Committee Chair after another pointing out to her the catastrophic consequences of no deal and asking whether she would rule that out, if and when the House rejects this deal, because we cannot inflict that kind of catastrophe on our people.

Theresa May The Prime Minister, Leader of the Conservative Party

If my hon. Friend is concerned about no deal, the way to ensure that there is a deal is to support the deal that is on the table.

.....

Sarah Wollaston Chair, Health and Social Care Committee, Chair, Liaison Committee (Commons)

Does my right hon. Friend agree that this is exemplified in article 107 of the future framework document? It just says:

"The Parties should consider appropriate arrangements for cooperation on space" and that is it.