

Brixham

I'm really pleased that ministers met with me and representatives from Brixham to discuss investing in our port and fishing and how Brixham in particular contributes to the strategic importance of the industry. This project could bring an extra Â£10m growth in the value of fish and Â£4m of shell-fish landed at Brixham and wider benefits to the whole of our local economy.