

APPG Great South West

I attend a Parliamentary reception of the launch of the Great South West All Party Parliamentary Group. There was a great turnout for this launch with local business leaders, councillors and MPs among those in attendance. I am sure this APPG can achieve great things by working cross party to find solutions to the issues that matter locally.